Rules for admission to the Postgraduate Degree and Diploma Courses of the University of Goa at the Goa Medical College.

I. These rules shall be applicable to all the admissions for Degree and Diploma Courses of the University of Goa at the Goa Medical College and shall be effective from the date of publication in the Official Gazette. The number of seats will be determined by the directives from Medical Council of India and the University and will be advertised twice a year.

II. Admission will be granted in the months of June and December of every academic year as per the rules of the University applicable from time to time. Applications shall ordinarily be invited in the prescribed form four weeks before the commencement of the new academic term or the conclusion of internship. The last date of submission of applications shall be 15 days from the date of issue of notice.

III. Eligibility, Preference and Order of Merit.

1) Eligibility:

Candidates applying for the admission to the postgraduate degree/diploma course shall:—

(i) Possess the MBBS degree of the University of Bombay/Goa or any other University recognized as equivalent thereto by the University of Goa and Medical Council of India.

(ii) Have registered with Indian or State Medical Council after completing the compulsory internship of one year.

2) Preference:—

While selecting the candidates for admission to postgraduate courses preference in the following order shall be observed:—

- Candidates who have graduated from Goa Medical College and have also satisfactorily completed full internship at Goa Medical College. If such candidates are not available, then
- Candidates who have graduated from Goa Medical College but have done the internship outside Goa Medical College. If such candidates are again not available, then
- Candidates who have graduated from Colleges other than Goa Medical College but who have completed the internship in Goa Medical College.
- Candidates who have graduated from and who have done their internship in Colleges, other than Goa Medical College.

3) Order of merit:—

The order of merit shall be determined by computing the marks in the following manner:—

- The merit shall be arrived at by obtaining the sum of the percentage of aggregate marks and the percentage of marks in the subject related to the Degree/Diploma in which the candidate seeks the registration.
- Aggregate Marks:—The percentage of aggregate marks shall be arrived at by totalling the marks obtained in the 1st, 2nd and 3rd MBBS examination. (Viz., Anatomy, Physiology, Biochemistry, Pharmacology, Pathology, Microbiology, Forensic Medicine, Medicine Surgery, Eye and E.N.T., Obstetrics & Gynaecology and Preventive and Social Medicine) and reducing it to a percentage after the following deductions.

- 2½ per cent of the maximum marks shall be deducted for every failure from the marks of the subject failed, except in the case of the subject related to the Diploma/Degree of registration.
 - 2½ percent of the maximum marks shall also be deducted as above, if the student takes a drop in any subject (does not appear/is absent at the examination) at the scheduled time.
- (iii) Subject Marks:—This refers to the percentage of marks in the subject related to Degree/Diploma in which the candidate seeks registration i.e. Medicine, Surgery, Eye and E. N. T., Obstetrics and Gynaecology and Preventive and Social Medicine. The percentage of subject marks shall be arrived at after deducting 5% of the maximum marks for each failure or drop.

Note:—While computing the aggregate marks, however, deduction indicated in 3 (ii) a) and b) above, shall not be made in the subject, where 5% deduction has already been made for failure under subject marks at 3(iii) above.

- (iv) If two or more candidates secure the same marks in the merit list as drawn above, the subject marks should decide the merit. In case the subject marks are also the same, the total marks secured by the candidate in the Final MBBS examination or total marks of IInd MBBS examination or total marks of Ist MBBS examination, depending on whether the candidate is seeking registration in a clinical, paraclinical or pre-clinical subject.

Note:—“Marks obtained in the subject” means the actual number of marks secured in the subjects shown below at the University examination.
